POINTS TO BE MADE IN MR. CASEY'S REMARKS AT THE BUILDING
DEDICATION, NSA

1. Thank the President for his presence and the enormous support it indicates for the National Security Agency in particular and the intelligence community in general.
2. NSA, and the Secretary of Defense emphasized, is a unique mix of military and civilian talent which supports daily our military forces.
3. NSA is also a truly "national" institution which performs in support of the government at large, both in intelligence and in protecting our communications.
4. Praise is due the leadership at every level for the continued outstanding performance of this intelligence team.
